U.S. Probation Officer Action:

During an adjustment session with the offender on August 13, 2012, in the presence of his parents, Vincent and Catherine, DeChiara was verbally reprimanded for his illegal use of cocaine. He was referred to The Open Door in New Brunswick, New Jersey, for outpatient substance abuse testing and treatment. DeChiara admitted abusing cocaine on August 10, 2012, and stated he obtained the illegal narcotic from an old friend. The undersigned officer reviewed all standard and special conditions of supervised release with the offender and reinforced the importance of remaining drug-free and abiding by the conditions of supervised release as set forth by the Court. At this time, we request that no Court action be taken. The undersigned officer will closely monitor the offender to ensure he complies with drug treatment and testing, as well as, all other conditions of supervised release. The undersigned will also randomly test the offender during unannounced home and community visits to ensure he is remaining drug-free. Should he fail to comply, our office will notify the Court immediately.

Respectfully submitted,

For By: Elizabeth A. Villa

Senior U.S. Probation Officer
